Press Release: Wing Cheung Hing Knitters Conjoined with the Hong Kong Young Women Christian Association (HKYWCA) to Organize a Birthday Party for the Underprivileged Children in Tin Shui Wai

Hong Kong, 16 August 2015
--- Wing Cheung Hing Knitters (WCH) today announced that WCH conjoined with the Hong Kong Young Women Christian Association (HKYWCA) to organize a birthday party for children living in Tin Shui Wai, Hong Kong.

HKYWCA is an association with purpose to advance the spiritual, mental, physical and social welfare of individuals, and promote their growth in Christian character and to cultivate Christian spirit of fellowship and service. Established in 1920 to care of our community, the HKYWCA is one of the largest and oldest women's organizations in Hong Kong. Since the inception, the HKYWCA have endeavored to strive the women's rights by offering women-oriented services such as eradicating illiteracy among women, promoting monogamy and "equal work for equal pay". Upholding the purpose of "Enhancement of Life" the HKYWCA has been developed into a diversified social service organization, with "Enhancement of Life" as the core serving objective.

Birthday is very important in the eyes of children. Unfortunately, children in underprivileged families are likely to enjoy no celebrations at all as their parents are too busy making a living or simply cannot afford anything outside necessities. Hence, WCH conjoined with HKYWCA Tin Shui Wai Integrated Social Service Centre in bringing the children a memorable day.

The staff, family and friends of WCH got together at a rainy Sunday morning and visited the HKYWCA Tin Shui Wai Integrated Social Service Centre. There was a short tour introducing the Centre and its purpose in serving the Tin Shui Wai community.

More than 30 children participated the birthday party. Volunteers of WCH prepared a huge birthday cake and variety of snacks. They also joined the children for different games and simple handiwork. Both the kids and the volunteers enjoyed a cheerful and cordinal afternoon. After all the games and food, every kid brought home a birthday present and an instant photo, which captured the happy moment on this special day.

With a caring nurturing environment, children are gifted with unlimited possibilities. WCH are delighted to have this opportunity to offer the underprivileged children with love and care, and hope this memorable moment will help them growing up happy and healthy.
